

Application Guide for Osaka Prefecture Children's Food Expense Support Program (4th round)

Recent price hikes have been putting a heavy strain on household spending. Child-raising households are particularly impacted by rising food prices, as food costs make up a large portion of their household budgets. In light of this situation, we will provide rice or other food items to all children living in Osaka Prefecture.

◆ Application period: From 9:00, Monday, June 2, 2025 to 23:59, Monday, September 1, 2025

* If applying by post, the application must be postmarked by September 1.

◆ Deadline to request support type after passing application: Sunday, November 30, 2025

The validity period of the "Rice PAY Osaka (rice coupon)" is also until Sunday, November 30, 2025.

* If you do not request which support type you would like by the deadline, we will assume you have withdrawn your application.

Food Support Types

A. "Rice PAY Osaka (rice coupon)" or B. Food item (Select rice or a food item from the food selection page.)

* Each item is worth 7,000 yen including tax and shipping charges

* The coupon can be exchanged for uncooked rice only (white, brown, or germinated rice). It cannot be used for cooked or multigrain rice.

Who is eligible for the program?

(1) Children age 18 or younger

Those born on or after April 2, 2007

(2) Expectant mothers

Those who are pregnant on the date of their application.

*Documentation that proves you are pregnant is required. (e.g., Maternal and Child Health Handbook)

Who can apply?

Guardian* of the child

* "Guardian" includes: the person who has parental custody, a designated guardian of the child, or any other adult who is taking care of the child.

Expectant mothers should apply themselves.

Application Process

1. Read the contents of the dedicated webpage below before applying. (Available until September 1, 2025) <https://osaka-kodomoshien.com>
2. Your submitted application will be reviewed by the Osaka Prefectural Government. (If your application has errors or is incomplete, we will contact you individually.)
3. The results of the review will be sent to the email address you provided.
4. Recipients who passed the application will be notified of how to request their food support. Please follow the instructions. (Please request by November 30, 2025*). (*The rice coupon also expires on November 30, 2025.)
5. [Those who selected "A" from the food selection page] You will receive an email containing a 20 character charge code. Charge the "Rice PAY Osaka (rice coupon)" on the region PAY app and redeem it for rice at eligible stores. [Those who selected "B" from the food selection page] The item(s) you selected will be delivered to you.

Identity Verification Documents

[Identification verification documents are required for both the recipient and the applicant.]

An identity verification document is a document issued by a public institution that contains your name, residence, and date of birth. E.g. "My Number" card (front side only), driver's license, residence card, special permanent resident certificate, health insurance card, welfare recipient card, certificate of residence (which includes the head of household and family relationship (must not include "My Number"); this certificate is also required if the recipient himself or herself is the head of the household or the applicant doesn't have parental custody of the recipient), etc.

※In addition, foster parents need a foster care certificate, and expectant mothers need their maternal and child health handbook.

Notes on the Application

- Applications should be submitted via the internet.
- One application should be submitted per eligible recipient.
- Children born to women who have already received support as expectant mothers under (2) from above are not eligible.
- In principle, food support will be sent to the address of the eligible recipient.
- If we do not receive your request for food support by the deadline, we will assume that you have withdrawn your application.
- After the application has been approved, if it is determined that any of the application requirements have not been met, we will revoke the approval.
